Horsforth • Leeds • LS18 4TJ

Feast Field is an attractive development of 12 self-contained office buildings situated in a courtyard setting and conveniently located within the popular North Leeds suburb of Horsforth.

Description

Feast Field is a high quality office development construction with natural stone exterior elevations and softwood sash windows under pitched slate roofs. Each building at Feast Field is two storey and self contained and provides office accommodation at ground and first floor levels with male and female toilets and fitted kitchen facilities. The buildings are available fully refurbished and benefit from modern suspended ceilings incorporating LED lighting, gas fired central heating and new quality carpeting and decorations. The accommodation is provided in an open plan arrangement with all office areas benefitting from excellent natural light.
